Alexandria Gazette

MONDAY BVEN'G., JANUARY 19.

A COMBAT FOR A BRIDE. - A curious affair occurred recently on a farm near Little Rock, Atk. Abo Garland and Tom Ross, young colored men, were both in love with the same dasky maiden, and she, with more than her rightful share of ecquetry, made each believe that he was the tayored one. The wedding day was appointed and the rivals arrived at the house timultaneously. Each was fitted out gorgeously for the cceassion, and it soon became apparent to each that his rival expected to become the husband. They turned upon each other with tiger-like fury, but the old man of the family interfered and said if there was to be a fight it must be a fair one, with their fiste. The combatans repaired to the yard and, on the word being given, a set to was commenced. They were well matched as to size and weight. Finally Abothrow Tom, and when he sprang up again he was felled to the ground by a mighty blow, which dec'ded the fight. The girl tended her prostrate knight, and while bathing his face from a basin of water, announced that she would marry the whipped man, and not the conqueror. Then Abe became furious, and swore that he had been whipped; but, as he could not prove it, Tom was wedded to her without further delay.

EMPROIDERIES.-We have purchased over 5,000 yards of Hamburg Elging at a great bargain, and will sell it for one week under its value. Call and see them at I. E!chbero's.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE FOR 1880

The Alexandria Gazette, begun in 1799, is the oldest newspaper in Virginia, and it has survived. with few exceptions, all the public presses in America which saw with it the dawn of the nineteenth century. It lives too, not in decay or decrepit, but full of life and youthful vigor, giving all the news, telling the truth without fear, favor or affection, trenching on the privacy of no man's home, but full to the brim with all public information, and giving daily honest udgments of public men and public measures.

It furnishes the news telegrams of the New York Associated Press and of Reuter's European agency, being, with but two exceptions, the only paper between Baltimere and Richmond that is thus connected with the great fountains of the world's news.

With the coming year all the long tried and improved methods of making a standard newspaper will be continued, with such additional facilities as part experience justifies the propristor in believing will add to the capacity of the Cazette to serve its readers. It expects to render faithful service to the city, the state and the country by a candid criticism of men and events in the interest of the people of the Common wealth of Virginia.

The year 1880 will be a period of critical in terest in both the Union and the Commonwealth. The election of the eighteenth President of the United States will take place, with all the combinations procedent, and counts; consequences and settlements subsequent, will call for record in the coming volume. The developments of the financial situation, which may portend affluence and comfort or poverty and privation to thousands, are now in progress, and the columns of the Gazette will note each step as well as chronicle the result. A new and striking foreign policy is among likely events, and the absorbing interest of it cannot be overestimated. In Virginia there is political chaos and industrial and commercial depression. The way out of this quagmire will fill many of those paragraphs with information of rare interest.

To meet all the demands upon it in an exceptional year, the Gazette will be made a WASH-INGTON and RICHMOND NEWSPAPER, as well as an ALEXANDRIA JOURNAL. The Richmond and Washington news of the past year has left little to improve, but yet greater effort will be made to insure absolute perfection in these departments.

The city of Alexandria will find as usual its daily history in each evening's issue, and the intelligence of that section of the Commonwealth which nature has bound to Alexandria by the curvature of its mountains or the courses of its rivers as well as that portion linked to us by the iron bands of railways, will be assiduously chronicled.

The Business and Commercial columns of the Gazette will be filled with the carliest and most exact commercial news, edited with such painstaking cars as will render an error, where even slight errors are dangerous, impossible.

The Cattle Markets of all the leading points of the world whose rates affect this market will be quoted, and regular statements of the Baltimore, Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria sales ficattle will ar pear.

The Flour, Grain and Produce movements will be noted daily, and the sales of the Alexandria and neighboring markets given with accuracy and dispatch. The Grocery and other markets will receive constant attention, and the money or stock markets of the country epitomized for its columns, full details being given to all stocks, &c., which find investors in this section of the country.

The advertising columns of the Gazette offer inducements which experience has shown to afford greater roturns for a small investment than any other which can be made.

TERMS OF BUBSCRIPTION.

The beginning of the New Year, which in this case marks the advent of another decade of the world's progress, is deemed a fit time for new features, so that from this date the Gazette for the country (tri-weekly) will be supplied at FOUR DOLLARS per annum, in advance.

THE NEW RATES.
